Philadelphia EMA By the Numbers 2022
The infographic through US Census Bureau data provides an overview of the landscape and characteristics of the general population within the nine county Philadelphia Eligible Metropolitan Area (EMA) that includes: population size, average household size, poverty rates, unemployment, internet access, insurance status, educational attainment, and transportation needs. The nine counties are: Bucks, Chester, Delaware, Montgomery, Philadelphia, Burlington, Camden, Gloucester, and Salem.

2022 EMA-Wide Census Data
The infographic through US Census Bureau data provides an overview of the median household income and poverty rate by county for the general public.

Philadelphia EMA Poverty Profile
The infographic through US Census Bureau data captures the income streams such as public assistance, SSI, retirement and supplemental income by county of the general public and unemployment rates for 2022.

Poverty & Education Attainment
The series of infographics through US Census Bureau data captures the highest level of educational attainment by sex at birth for the general population 25 years or older by poverty rate and regardless of poverty status. The series identifies that poverty impacts and educational attainment differs based on sex at birth.

Health Insurance Coverage
The infographic through Kaiser Family Foundation data captures the types of health insurance coverage for the general population in the states of Pennsylvania and New Jersey.

Uninsured Coverage in the EMA
The infographic through US Census Bureau data captures the characteristics of the uninsured general population by sex assigned at birth and age within the Philadelphia Eligible Metropolitan Area (EMA).

Limited English Speaking Household
The infographic through US Census Bureau data captures the percentages of limited English speaking households by county for 2022.

STIs
The series of infographics through Center for Disease Control and Prevention data captures Syphilis, Chlamydia, Gonorrhea case rates from 2017-2021 in the EMA by sex at birth, race, and ethnicity.

Sex Education and Teen Prevention
The infographic through The Sex Education Collaborative and the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention data captures sex education laws in Pennsylvania and New Jersey and the use of condoms for high school students in 2021.

Teen Pregnancy
The infographic through the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania Department of Health Division of Health Informatics and New Jersey State Health Assessment data captures live births for youth in ages 15-19 in the EMA counties for 2015-2021.

Youth in Philadelphia
The infographic through the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention data captures sexual behaviors by grade, drug and alcohol use, for 2022.

Students Experiencing Violence
The infographic through the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention data describes the violence experienced by high school students in addition to feelings of hopelessness of students for 2021.

Other Discussion: Food Insecurity
The series of infographics through Feeding America data captures food insecurity of the general population by county within the Philadelphia Eligible Metropolitan Area (EMA) highlighting the population of food insecure individuals, average meal costs, percentage of SNAP eligible recipients in the area, and the annual food budget shortfall in the county.

Other Discussion: Telemedicine Usage, in Pennsylvania & New Jersey 2021-2022
The infographic via the Fair Health Telehealth Regional Tracker and Office of HIV Planning Consumer Survey data captures the availability and access to telemedicine regionally and within the Philadelphia Eligible Metropolitan Area (EMA). In addition, it identifies preferences around usage and reasons for those preferences in the Philadelphia EMA specific to those individuals living with HIV.

Other Discussion: EMA Transportation Access 2022
The infographic through US Census Bureau data captures the transportation characteristics of the general population within the Philadelphia Eligible Metropolitan Area (EMA) that identifies public transportation usage, modes of transportation for work, and commute times.

Other Discussion: Housing
The infographic through US Census Bureau data captures the median rent costs and its impacts on the general population in Philadelphia.

General Population Key Takeaways
The infographic provides three takeaways for the general population within the Philadelphia Eligible Metropolitan Area (EMA) housing, food insecurity, and STIs.

Philadelphia EPI Profile Overview

The infographic through Philadelphia Department of Public Health, Division of HIV Health data provides an overview of the HIV specific landscape of the nine county EMA including epidemic population size, service utilization, care continuum, and diagnoses demographics for 2021-2022.

2021 EMA-Wide Prevalence Data

The infographic through Philadelphia Department of Public Health, Division of HIV Health data captures the characteristics of prevalence by race, gender, age, and mode of transmission.

Concurrent Diagnoses & HIV Tests

The infographic through Philadelphia Department of Public Health, Division of HIV Health data captures the percentage of people by region and the age disparity of persons diagnosed with HIV and AIDS within 30 days within the EMA in 2021.

HIV Tests & New Diagnoses in the Counties

The infographic through Philadelphia Department of Public Health, Division of HIV Health data captures the percentage of distribution of tests within the counties and the number of new diagnoses in 2022.

HIV Testing in Philadelphia

The infographic through Philadelphia Department of Public Health, Division of HIV Health data captures the number of distributed tests within Philadelphia and the rate of positivity by transmission mode in 2021.

2021 Philadelphia Continuum

The infographic through Philadelphia Department of Public Health, Division of HIV Health data captures the percentages of linked to care, retained in care, and virally suppressed.

New Jersey & Pennsylvania ADAP Clients 2021

The infographic through NASTAD data captures the characteristics of ADAP recipients by race, ethnicity, and gender in the states of New Jersey and Pennsylvania.

EMA Part A

The series of infographics through HRSA Ryan White Services data captures the characteristics of Part A NON-ADAP recipients by race, age, ethnicity, and gender, poverty level, housing, and care continuum in the Philadelphia Eligible Metropolitan Area (EMA).

Part A: Health Insurance Coverage by Age, Race/Ethnicity, Sex at Birth EMA, 2022

The infographic through Philadelphia Department of Public Health, Division of HIV Health data captures the characteristics of health insurance coverage for eligible Part A recipients by race, age, ethnicity, and sex assigned at birth within the Philadelphia Eligible Metropolitan Area (EMA).

HIV Transmission Modes in the EMA
The infographic through Philadelphia Department of Public Health, Division of HIV Health data captures the percentage, number of new cases and rates of HIV infection for MSM (men who have sex with men), heterosexuals, and PWID (people who inject drugs) for 2020-2021 within the EMA.

5 Things PWID
The infographic through Philadelphia Department of Public Health, Division of HIV Health data captures the prevalence of infection, CSU service needs and utilization, and the care continuum within the Philadelphia Eligible Metropolitan Area (EMA).

Philadelphia Epi Key Takeaways
The infographic summarizes the Philadelphia EMA Epi infographics with three key points: HIV testing data and diagnoses, PWID, and race/ethnicity impacts..